

Mrs Olive Jones

Nagambie Times

16 July, 1915

After a long illness, the wife of Mr G. Jones, of Bailieston, passed away at her home on Saturday last.

She had been ailing for more than 12 months, the last three of which she was obliged to spend in bed, the inevitable hand of the grim reaper — death — proving a happy release to her sufferings. She was a comparatively young woman, being but 31 years of age; she was born at Whroo, and, consequently, was well-known and highly-respected throughout the district.

Great sympathy is felt for the husband and children, there being three of the latter, the youngest being only fifteen months old.

He remains were interred in the Whroo cemetery on Monday afternoon, a large number of friends following to the graveside. The Rev. Churchward, of Rushworth, conducted the burial service, the mortuary arrangements being carried out by Mr W. S. Baud, of Nagambie.

Olive Amelia Helen Jones is listed buried at Whroo at 12 July, 1915.
