

Gilbert (Bert) Cochrane

Rushworth Chronicle

15 March, 1895

We are sorry to have to record the death of Bert Cochrane, the eldest son of Mr and Mrs D. Cochrane of Bailieston.

The sad event, which occurred on Monday last, was the result of an attack of typhoid fever, contracted while on a visit to Melbourne to see the last [cricket] test match.

Much sympathy has been felt for the bereaved parents.

Whroo cemetery records include a Gilbert John Cochrane, buried March 1895. The cemetery plaque displays his age as just 18.
