

John Grant Menon

Waranga Chronicle

27 September, 1877

A week ago we shook hands with old Menon, a genial good, social soul. Business of a peculiar nature rendered absence necessary for a day or two. On return, we were surprised to hear that Mr Menon had left this mortal scene. So it is however. May his spirit have reached the land of rejoicing. We are not aware what family he has left behind.

Whroo cemetery records show John Grant Menon, aged 69, buried 25 September, 1877.
